Eagle Rock Art Guild

The Eagle Rock Art Guild, founded in 1948, is the oldest art organization in Idaho. The Art Guild is a nonprofit, all volunteer organization for fine artists like you. Our goal is to promote awareness of the fine arts by providing a forum for education, communication, and the recognition of artists and their work.

Our membership is made up of both professional and amateur local artists who use a wide variety of mediums. We are supported by annual dues, fund raisers, and contributions.

The Art Guild sponsors three major events each year: the Spring Art Show in April, the Sidewalk Art Festival during the last weekend of July, and the Holiday Art Fair in November.

We also sponsor three children's shows, and provide scholarships for high school seniors.

Mission Statement

To promote visual fine arts in the Idaho Falls region through education, community service and cultural programming for all ages.

Art is Magic

The Art Guild relies heavily on the support of our membership to execute our many programs:

Art classes at the Senior Citizen Center

Free children's art classes

Dream Night at the Zoo

Festival of Trees

School Gallery Tours

The Bank of Idaho Youth Art Show

The Helen Aupperle High School
Scholarship Art Show

The Children's Elementary Art Show

The Spring Art Show

The Sidewalk Art Festival in July

The Holiday Art Fair in November

Do your part as a member to support the Art Guild by helping and participating in any of the above programs.
